Privacy Notice

The Department of Justice and Attorney-General (DJAG) is collecting your personal information under the Working with Children (Risk Management and Screening) Act 2000 (WWC Act). Where relevant, DJAG will disclose personal information to organisations you work for or provide services to about whether you have a current application for, or hold a current blue/exemption card; the outcome of this application which may include its withdrawal or negative notice, or if your blue/exemption card is subsequently suspended or cancelled. DJAG publishes confirmation about whether your blue card is valid. DJAG will use and disclose your personal information to assess your application for a blue/exemption card and will disclose your personal information to courts, law enforcement agencies, disciplinary or supervisory bodies or anyone you have agreed for DJAG to discuss your application with. It may also be used to contact you with more information about your application and the Blue Card process. DJAG may use electronic communication for matters of information provision and collection of data for research purposes. Authorised users of the home-based care register, kept pursuant to the WWC Act, may also have access to your personal information. DJAG manages your personal information in accordance with the WWC Act and the Information Privacy Act 2009.

Important information

You can withdraw your consent to screening at any time before a decision is made.

A registered teacher means a person registered as a teacher under the Education (Queensland College of Teachers) Act 2005.

A police officer means a person engaged by the Queensland Police Service as a police officer under the Police Service Administration Act 1990.

After you have submitted an application for an exemption card, your application details will be forwarded to the Queensland College of Teachers or the Queensland Police Service, where appropriate.

Confirmation of your status as a registered teacher or police officer will be sought from the relevant agency and whether there is a need to undertake further employment screening in relation to your application.

If you have indicated that you are a registered teacher:

The Queensland College of Teachers may only advise that there is a need to undertake further employment screening where the Queensland College of Teachers is aware of any police information in relation to you.

If you have indicated that you are a police officer:

The Queensland Police Service may only advise that there is a need to undertake further employment screening about a police officer where the Queensland Police Service is aware that the applicant has been charged with an offence and the charge has not been finally dealt with.

No personal information about the specifics of a person's criminal history will be provided as part of this information exchange.

*Non-conviction charge means, whether a person was charged as an adult or a child, a charge: that has been withdrawn; that has been the subject of a nolle prosequi, a no true bill or a submission of no evidence to offer; that led to a conviction that was quashed on appeal; or upon which a person was acquitted or disposed of by a court otherwise than by way of conviction.

^Conviction/convicted means a finding of guilt by a court, or the acceptance of a plea of guilty by a court, whether or not a conviction is recorded and regardless of when and where it occurred.
